

Wisconsin

Sales tax holiday period is August 1–5, 2018.

To qualify for the tax exemption, the purchase must be made during the sales tax holiday period for personal use. The exemption is based on the item purchased and applies to computers sold for no more than $750. Related accessories, such as printers, printer supplies, personal digital assistants (not including cellular phones), handheld electronic schedulers (not including cellular phones), and computer storage media, with a sales price of no more than $250 also qualify for this holiday.

Please visit the Wisconsin Department of Revenue website for complete terms and conditions: www.revenue.wi.gov/

Eligible products include:

- Computers under $750
  - Computers
  - iPad models
  - iPod touch
- Accessories
  - Printers
  - Printer supplies (printer paper and toner)
  - Computer storage media (diskettes and compact discs)