

New Mexico

Sales tax holiday period is August 7–9, 2020.

To qualify for the sales tax holiday exemption, the purchase must be made during the sales tax holiday period. The exemption is based on the item purchased and applies to computers sold for no more than $1000. Related accessories, such as speakers, printers, keyboards, and mice, with a sales price of no more than $500 also qualify for this holiday.

Please visit the New Mexico Taxation & Revenue Department website for complete terms and conditions: www.tax.newmexico.gov/tax-holiday.aspx

Eligible products include:

- Computers under $1000
 - Computers
 - iPad
 - iPod touch
- Accessories under $500
 - Keyboards
 - Mice
 - Apple Pencil
 - Speakers
 - Cables
 - RAM
 - Microphones
 - Routers
 - Hard drives (including Apple TV)
 - Flash drives
 - Printers
 - Printer supplies (e.g., Lifeprint paper)